Learning outcomes

Respiratory Functions Tests & Optimising Drug Delivery to the Lungs for People with Asthma

- To provide a practical background and overview of respiratory function tests
- To assist general practitioners in the analysis and interpretation of respiratory function test results
- Understand why drug particle size is important in asthma management
- Evaluate the impact of adherence on asthma control
- How to individualise inhaler device choice for patients with asthma
- Provide a review of the key clinical data for flutiform® inhaler

© FLUTIFORM is the registered trade mark of Jagotec AG used under licence by Mundipharma Pty Limited
Respiratory Functions Tests
&
Optimising Drug Delivery to the Lungs for People with Asthma

Meeting details

Date: Thursday 25th August 2016
Time: 6.30pm Registration, 7.00pm Start of meeting
Venue: Red Peppa
34 Sturt Street
Ballarat, VIC
Speaker: Dr Jeremy Goldin
Respiratory/Thoracic Physician
Western Sleep and Breathing Clinic

Outline of activities

6:30 Registration, 7:00pm Start of meeting
Welcome and introduction (meal service commences) 10 mins

Educational activity:
A practical background and overview of respiratory function tests 50 mins
Optimising drug delivery in the lungs for people with asthma 50 mins
Questions and answers 20 mins
Summary, discussion, concluding remarks
Evaluation (Tea & coffee served)

RSVP:
Please contact your Mundipharma representative to confirm your attendance to this meeting; alternatively please fax the below form back to (02) 9223 0011

Mundipharma Representative: Karen Bourchier
Email: Karen.Bourchier@mundipharma.com.au
Phone: 0407 665 430

RSVP details

☐ Yes, I will be attending the meeting
☐ No, I am unable to attend

Name
Surgery
Contact number
Email address
Special dietary requirements

You consent to Mundipharma collecting your personal information to (a) organise your participation in this event and (b) provide you with information about Mundipharma products and services and future events sponsored or hosted by Mundipharma.

You agree that Mundipharma may report details relating to your attendance at this event (including, if required, your name, address, hospitality offered to you or expenses paid for you) in accordance with Mundipharma’s obligations under the Medicines Australia Code of Conduct.

Mundipharma may disclose your information to service providers engaged by Mundipharma, including to arrange your attendance at this event, or otherwise in accordance with Mundipharma’s Privacy Policy.

For further information regarding how Mundipharma manages your personal information, or how you can access or update your personal information or make a complaint, please refer to our Privacy Policy at http://www.mundipharma.com.au/privacypolicy.html.

If you no longer wish to receive information relating to Mundipharma events or Mundipharma products or services, please email unsubscribe@mundipharma.com.au, indicating the types of communications you want to be unsubscribed from.